Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

Saturday, October 11th, 1746. [Numb. 652.]

From the LONDON Gazette. [Published by Authority.]

VIENNA, June 25.

The following is a Relation, published by this Court, of the Battle near Placentia, on the 16th Day of June, 1746, between the Imperial Army under the Command of Prince Lichtenstein, and the combined Armies of France and Spain.

Marshal Maillebois having left Novi the 11th with all the French and Genoise Troops, and having joined the Spanish Army on the 14th near Placentia, posted his Left Wing near the Town, and his Right upon the River Trebia; that, and the following Day, all the Generals of the Enemy made the necessary Dispositions for an Attack; about eleven o'clock the same Night, (viz. the 15th) the Enemy advanced against our Left Wing, they had very good Success in the Beginning, having very soon dislodged some of the advanced Guards from the Cassines and Redoubts which our irregular Troops occupied. As the Darkness of the Night hindered us from discovering where the Enemy might attack us with the greatest Force, (which rendered it difficult for us to make so good Dispositions as might have been made) Prince Lichtenstein only gave Orders for the whole Army to be in Arms, and repair to the Posts that had been assigned the Day before, and to wait for the Enemy in that Manner; that every Officer should maintain his Post to the last Extremity in Case he should be attacked. At break of Day we perceived the Enemy's whole Army advancing in Order of Battle, at a small Distance from us; and the Right, commanded by Marshal Maillebois, with whom were the Spanish Guards and Walloons, began the Action. The Enemy advanced in Order against our Left Wing, and were well received by the Field Pieces belonging to our Regiments. Ten Companies of our Grenadiers, which formed a Corps de Reserve, fell upon their Flank and repulsed them; but having gone too far, were obliged to retire to prevent their being cut off: Upon which Marshal Maillebois advanced in perfect good Order, and with great Bravery quite up to our small Arms, which began to make a continual Fire upon them. But General Browne, with the Infantry of his Wing, and General Lutskoff with the Cavalry, having made proper and immediate Dispositions to alter the Attack, the latter advanced with three Regiments of Lobkowitz, Baillyre and Helly; and having received the first Bire of the Enemy, fell upon their Infantry sword in Hand with so much Valour, that he routed them, and without giving them the least Time to recover themselves, pursued them till they had got under the Walls of Placentia; from which the considerable Loss of the Enemy may be conjectured. After this General Lutskoff returned with a great many Prisoners of War to take Possession of his former Post. In the mean while, the Spanish General M. de Gages having seen the bad Success of the Right Wing, and that on the contrary, his Left Wing began to gain some Advantages reinforced it in such a Manner, that our Right Wing, was not only obliged to give Way before the great Number of the Enemy, but were also obliged to evacuate the greatest part of the Redoubts and Cassines which we were in Possession of; whereupon we reinforced our Right Wing: General Lutskoff who commanded there, fell upon the Enemy in Flank with his Regiment of Dragoons, and Four Squadrons of Cuirassiers of the Regiment of Portugal, routed them, and being followed by the Infantry, which by his Example recovered their Courage, and being supported by some Battalions from the Left Wing, obliged them to abandon the Redoubts and Cassines which they had made themselves Masters of, and drove them with his Cavalry quite up to the Gates of the City; it was in this Manner that we gained the complete Victory.

The King of Sardania's Troops were not in the Action, not having been able to follow the Enemy in their forced Marches farther than to the Castle of Novelli Scitola; however it is not doubted but that they are come up by this Time. According to the best Discoveries we have yet been able to make, our two Wings made about 4000 of the Enemy Prisoners of War, took 27 Colours, 3 Standards, and 5 Pieces of Cannon. Amongst the Prisoners are Lieutenant-General Aremburg, Major General Wurtz, 5 or 6 Brigadiers, and about 200 other Officers. The Enemy's Loss in killed must be considerable, tho' we have not any Particulars as yet. Our Loss amounts to about 2000 Men.

Hague, June 25. An Express is this Minute arrived from Prince Lichtenstein, with the following important News, viz. That upon the 15th Instant, at 11 at Night, the combined Army of Spaniards, French, Neapolitans and Genoise, under General Count de Gages, had attacked the Austrian Army before Placentia, and that the Battle lasted with a continual Fire till between Nine and Ten the next Morning, when the Emperor's Forces, under the Prince de Lichtenstein, repulsed the Enemy, and obtain'd a signal Victory. The Number of the Slain on the Part of the Enemy was not yet known, but the Austrians had taken above thirty Colours and Standards, ten Pieces of Cannon, and above 3000 Prisoners, the greatest Part of them wounded, and amongst them some Hundreds of Officers, particularly the Generals Aremburg and Wurtz, and some Brigadiers. The French Troops and the Spanish Guards suffer'd most. The Loss of the Austrians Killed and Wounded was computed at near 3000 Men. Amongst the latter was Lieutenant General Kiel, Colonel of Vetter Regiment, and some other Field Officers. The Colonel of Bersaen's Regiment was kill'd, and Colonel Budel, of the Silavians taken. The Courier sent by Prince Lichtenstein adds by Word of Mouth, that Marshal Maillebois had joined General Gages before the Action, and that both his Corps, and all the rest of the Allied Forces, were shut up in and about Placentia; and that they cannot now get off without a second Action, and especially since the King of Sardania was advanced already upon the Day of the Battle as far as St Giovanni, and was expected the Day of the Messenger's Departure upon the Trebia.

From the Imperial Camp at Placentia, June 21.

The Loss of the Enemy the last Battle increases daily, and those of them who are most sincere in their Accounts, make it 14,000 Men; and tho' no more than 4000 were found on the Field of Battle, and no more than 3097 Prisoners taken, yet we are assured, that all the Convents and Churches in Placentia are thronged with the wounded.

Vienna, June 29. Colonel O'Donnell, who arrived here from Italy, is appointed a Major-General: He brought 29 Pair of Colours and 3 Standards. The whole Number of Cannon taken was Ten, and the Enemy's whole Loss in Killed Wounded and Prisoners, is now affirmed to be no less than 14,000 Men. Marquis de Mervin is not so desperately wounded as was given out.

From the Imperial Camp at Placentia, June 24.

The 18th the Austrian Army was extended from St. Lazaro to the Trebia, and a Communication was form'd between the two Armies by Bridge. The 20th, the Enemy sent some Troops foraging towards Cadagno, and with a View to reconnoitre the Country, in order to facilitate the Retreat of the main Body. On the 21st and 22d about 5000 Reinforcements from Germany joined joined the Army, and both the Austrian and Sardinian Army were in Motion; having received Advice, that the Army of the three Crowns were preparing to march, which they began to do on the 23d in the Morning; when their Advanced Guards, consisting of about 2000 Men, were surrounded, 1264 Men made Prisoners, and most of the Remainder killed. Fifteen Hundred more Recruits are expected this Day at Galls; and 3000 Prisoners are sent to Mantua. There was killed on our Side in the Battle, not mentioned particularly before, 29 Captains 36 Lieutenants, 32 Ensigns and Cornets, one Adjutant, 671 Men, and 226 Horses. Wounded 2101 Men, and 431 Horses, and about 200 Men and 70 Horses missing.

Rebelle, June 22: A Lady in a Masque, accompanied with several well dressed People, being presented this Morning at the Gate of the Town, she enter'd into a Shallop, decorated with a Pavillion, which was shut in an Instant. The Shallop immediately carried the Unknown on board one of the Ships in the Fleet, in which every Thing was prepared for her Reception; and directly after all the Ships of the Fleet, composed of 25 Ships of War, besides Transports, &c. set sail; on board of which were many Soldiers, Engineers, and a large Quantity of Ammunition.

Fort Augustus, June 17. Sunday Forenoon Lord Levat was brought here in a Horse Litter, with about 50 Rebels more; among whom is Hugh Fraser, his Secretary, his Footman, his Cook, and a pretty young Girl, besides 4 Englishmen from Lancashire.

June 24 Last Week some of the Garrison of Fort William were sent out in quest of the young Pretender, and miss'd him by about half an Hour. However, as he and his Party were observed to get off in Boats to some of the Islands, the Men of War's Boats are now plying closely about all these Places.

Edinburgh, June 25. Yesterday the Duke of Bedford arrived at the Abbey, and this Morning at one his Grace embarked on board the Syren Man of War in his Way to Inverness.

The Advices from the North assure, that there is the highest probability of Success by a Detachment lately sent out with Orders to search for the young Pretender, and several of the Rebel Chiefs.

Newcastle, June 28. A Letter from Fort Augustus to a Gentleman of this Town, says, that Lord Levat was taken by a Captain of a Man of War, in the Trunk of a Tree, where his Lordship had the Mortification of living twelve Days on Oatmeal and Water only, with 5 or 600 Guineas in his Pockets. Three other Lairds, one of them Laird of the Island of Bava were taken along with him.

London, June 21. Letters from the Hague intimate, that M. Van Hoy will be speedily recalled from the French Court, and that M. Kalkren will be sent to reside at Versailles, with the Character of Ambassador from their High Mightinesses.

The same Letters say, that the States have a second Time rejected the Proposals of France; and have declared, they cannot propose to their Allies any Cession whatever, without offering at the same Time proper Equivalents.

They write from Paris, June 17, that the English attempted a Descent in the Isle of Re, but that all who landed were either kill'd or taken Prisoners; That Lord John Drummond, Messrs. Shiridan, Sullivan, Lochiel, jun. and others, arrived at Paris from Scotland a few Days ago.

Yesterday the Vessels having on board the Marquis of Tullibardine, the Son of the Earl of Crimarty, and about 700 more Prisoners taken in the late Rebellion in Scotland, arrived at the Gallies near Woolwich, where they remain under a proper Guard for Orders.

The Earl of Chesfield will soon embark for Holland, as Ambassador Extraordinary to the States General, on Affairs of great Importance.

London, July 15. On Sunday last two Expresses arrived to his Majesty at Kennington, with an Account of the Death of Philip the V. King of Spain, who died at Madrid of an Apoplectick Fit, in the 63d Year of his Age, being born at Versailles the 9th. of December, O S 1682. He came to the Crown of Spain in 1700, on the Death of Charles II. Married first Mary, Sister to the late Duke of Savoy, on the 21st of August, 1701, who died Feb 3. 1714, Aet 26. He had Issue, 1. Don Ferdinand, Prince of Asturias (now King of Spain) who was born at Madrid the 12th of September, 1713. And 2. Mary, the present Queen of Portugal, who was born the 23d of November, 1711, and married the 30th of December, 1728.

She had another Son, viz. Louis (born in 1707) in whose Favour Philip his Father abdicated the Crown the latter End of the Year 1723, and upon whose Death the 20th of August following, the said Philip resumed the Government.

He married on the 13th of December, 1714, to his 2d Wife, Elizabeth Farnese (Daughter to the Duke of Parma) who was born the 13th of October, 1692. By her he had, 1. Don Carlos King of the Two Sicilies, born the 9th of January, 1716, and married Mary Amelia, Daughter of the present King of Poland. 2. Don Philip, now in Italy, born the 4th of March, 1720, who has been High Admiral of Spain ever since 1737. 3. Don Louis born July 14, 1727, who has been Archbishop of Toledo, and a Cardinal, ever since 1735. 4. Maria Teresa, Infanta, born May 31, 1726. 5. Maria Antonietta Ferdinand, Infanta, born November 26, 1729.

It is reported that the King of Spain's Death was for some Time conceal'd, in order to push a little farther the Projects of his ambitious and turbulent Consort, who must now be excluded from all Share in the Administration. Don Ferdinand, Prince of Asturias, who succeeds to the Crown of Spain and the Indies, and is thought well affected to the English Nation, is about 33 Years of Age, and was married in 1728 to the Infanta of Portugal, Donna Maria, by whom he has no Issue. As this Prince, from the Treatment he has met with, can have no Affection for either his Step-Mother or her Offspring, in all Probability the vast Expence of Blood and Treasure that has been incurred to procure an Establishment for Don Philip, will now be at an End, and his Majesty Don Carlos may want Protection, in Case his Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily should be attacked.

Now surrender'd the 11th Instant, the Garrison Prisoners of War. And the French talk now of investing Charleroy and St. Gbrian at once.

July 17. The Lord Levat is on the Road, and will be here in two or three Days.

According to the latest Advices from Vienna, a Plan had lately been received there from London and the Hague, relating to a general Accommodation in Europe; but the Empress having examined it in a general Council held on the Occasion, thought fit afterwards to declare, "That how desirous soever she may be of a Peace, she could not in this Plan find the Advantages which in Justice she had Reason to hope for; That it would be easy for her to obtain more considerable Advantage of the Crowns of France and Spain, if she would enter into a separate Negotiation with either of them, they having already signified what they would do on such an Occasion; but that being firmly and invariably resolved to enter into no Negotiation, of what Kind soever, to the Exclusion of her Allies, she persists in exhorting her said Allies to concur with her in those vigorous Measures, which ought to result from their mutual Constancy, and the Harmony of their Resolutions.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 11.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London to his Friend in this Town, dated August 7th, 1746.

"On the 30th of July. Mr. Townly, of Townly in Lancashire, (late Governor of Carlisle under the young Pretender, and Colonel in the Manchester Regiment,) with Eight others, was hang'd and quarter'd for Rebellion; Eight more were reprim'd for three Weeks; and on the 1st Instant the Earls of Ormarth and Kilmarnock, with Lord Balmorino, receiv'd Sentence of Death. The Marquis of Tullibardine died suddenly in the Tower. — Mr. Murray, the Pretender's Secretary, who was taken the 13th and brought here the 19th ult. has made a Discovery of 1400 Persons who have subscrib'd their Names to an Instrument for raising 400,000 l for the Service of the Pretender. On this Occasion 24 Messengers are already dispatch'd into divers Parts of the Country; particularly, one to Inverness. for Murray's Papers, to prove his Discoveries. And the Scotch Rebels are now on their Tryals."
